

2016 All-State Bowling Teams

Boys

First team

Matt Dobbs, Desert Oasis - The senior had a 205.6 average and placed fourth in the state tournament. He also was the anchor bowler on the Diamondbacks' state championship team.

Joe Gerencser, Green Valley - The junior, who had a 216.3 average, was the only bowler to eclipse the 700 barrier in the Division I state tournament, as he rolled a 734 series to win his first individual title.

Brendan Lindsey, Tech - The sophomore won the Division I-A state title with a 651 series and averaged 210.4.

Skyler McGowan, Mojave - The freshman ranked second in the I-A Southern Region and fourth overall in Southern Nevada with a 206.0 average.

Terrance Rock, Liberty - The freshman led Southern Nevada with a 219.0 average and finished third in the Division I state tournament.

Second Team

Douglas Csanyi, Liberty - The junior had a 198.0 average and helped the Patriots to a state runner-up finish.

Zachery Dobbs, Desert Oasis - The freshman had a 197.9 average and helped the Diamondbacks to their first state title in school history.

Joseph Ongtawco, Sierra Vista - The senior ranked fifth in the I-A Southern Region with a 201.0 average and placed fourth in the state tournament.

Kyle Rendon, Tech - The sophomore had a 203.3 average for the I-A Southern Region's top team.

Teagan Smale, Boulder City - The senior, who had a 202.3 average, finished third at state and led the Eagles to their second I-A state title in three seasons.

Honorable Mention

Brandon Culmo, Las Vegas

Ricky Hernandez, Shadow Ridge

Elijah Lomotan, Eldorado
D.J. Wyatt, Bishop Gorman

Jaden Richards, Las Vegas

Girls

First Team

Beatrice Aquino, Clark - The freshman had a 184.7 average and finished third in the Division I-A state tournament.

Jazmyn Eubanks, Del Sol - The senior won the Division I-A state title with a 606 series and averaged 175.9.

Leah Glazer, Bishop Gorman - The junior posted the second-highest average in Southern Nevada with 195.3 and finished second in the Division I state tournament.

Emi Leong, Tech - The senior led Southern Nevada with a 202.7 average and finished second in the Division I-A state tournament. She also helped the Roadrunners to their fourth consecutive team title.

Morgan Peacha, Foothill - The senior had a 183.0 average and led the Falcons to the Division I Sunrise Region championship.

Second Team

Alexia Cassman, Shadow Ridge - The freshman had a 177.8 average and placed fourth in the Division I state tournament.

Meagan Huggins, Arbor View - The junior ranked third in the Sunset Region with a 174.8 average.

Natallie Kowalski, Palo Verde - The senior, who had a 164.0 average, won her second consecutive Division I state title after rolling a 642 series.

Leeann Reyes, Sierra Vista - The senior ranked fourth in the I-A Southern Region with a 173.1 average.

Gabriella Weis, Las Vegas - The junior was second in the Sunrise Region with a 174.1 average.

Honorable Mention

Kiara Ackerman, Coronado
Christine Cibura, Centennial
Alexis Safley, Basic

Monica Barriga, Centennial
Leanna Orlando, Shadow Ridge

Coach of the Year: Randy Michalik, Tech - The Roadrunners' girls team won its fourth consecutive Division I-A state title this season and outscored opponents 115-2. The boys side won the Southern Region and was second in the I-A state tournament.

For all High School Bowling information and tournament results, visit:
<http://www.niaa.com/sports/bowl/index>

Reference: Las Vegas Review Journal, Wednesday, March 22, 2016