

Keith Kolozsi

Keith moved to Las Vegas and joined the SNUSBC in 1993, and is the definition of what a hall of fame bowler should be. His performance and accolades are matched by few. Here is a brief list of those accolades:

1. 73 perfect 300 games (almost half bowled in the SNUSBC)
2. Twenty 800 series
3. 34 year ABC/ USBC member and a PBA member for 17 years
4. 150+ total tournaments won, including multiple local city tournaments; PBA regionals, nationals, West Coast Seniors, juniors and more
5. A member of the Dayton, Ohio Bowling Association Hall of Fame

His multiple tournament titles, unprecedented number of awards, and overall wealth of experience are the measurable facts of why he deserves to be inducted into the hall of fame. But what really makes Keith special is his passion and love for the game. He is committed to the continuing growth of the sport.

He is constantly supporting and encouraging those around him to better their game.

He has even passed his skill level and passion for the game on to his son, Chase who is a high school bowler, last year making the Ohio state bowling finals.

Keith is a true ambassador to the sport of bowling, specifically the Southern Nevada USBC.
